The NFCC and its members will empower people to take charge of their finances, and their futures.

...AND A POWERFUL COMMITMENT

The NFCC and its members have set a goal to empower 5 million people to improve their financial well-being by 2020.
ADVOCACY SETS THE NFCC APART

Because we represent the best interests of consumers, respected experts and community organizations—including Jean Chatzky, Suze Orman and United Way Worldwide—have recommended the NFCC and our member agencies.

RIGOROUS QUALITY STANDARDS

Before they earn the right to display our seal, every nonprofit NFCC member agency is held to 18 NFCC quality standards to assure excellence. This ensures we remain a trusted source for sound financial advice. To maintain consistency and quality across agencies, nearly 1,600 NFCC Certified Credit Counselors have completed rigorous training. They are also required to be recertified.

NATIONAL NETWORK, LOCAL DELIVERY

The NFCC and its community-based member agencies empower millions of consumers to take charge of their finances and their futures through nearly 600 member offices serving all 50 states and Puerto Rico.

THE RELATIONSHIPS TO GET THE JOB DONE

The NFCC maintains relationships with financial institutions and creditors at a variety of levels to ensure consumers are protected. With staff dedicated solely to creditor relations, the NFCC’s effectiveness as an advocate is sustained by an ongoing dialogue on the issues that matter.

A KNOWLEDGEABLE INDUSTRY RESOURCE

As the leader in financial counseling and education, the NFCC and its members take their role as the consumer’s financial advocate seriously. We represent both consumer and NFCC member agency interests through our strong working relationships with the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, the Department of the Treasury, the Department of Education and other congressional offices. This has led to the NFCC becoming a primary source for news and information on nonprofit financial counseling.

WHERE FUNDING COMES FROM

NFCC members receive voluntary fair share contributions from many of the nation’s largest financial institutions. The NFCC and its members also receive grant funding from the government, foundations and corporations. For example, in 2015 the NFCC and its members were awarded 22.9 million in housing grants from the Department of Housing and Urban Development and through Neighborworks America.
